Instructions:

1. Use a border punch on the outside spine.
2. Adhere chipboard spine to outside patterned paper spine centering the chipboard as shown in the second picture using Scor-Tape.

3. Apply Scor-Tape on patterned paper spine. Burnish Scor-Tape with a bone folder. Use a liquid adhesive to secure the scalloped edges of the border. Adhere outside cover pieces very close to the chipboard spine.

4. Apply adhesive to the two remaining chipboard pieces as shown.

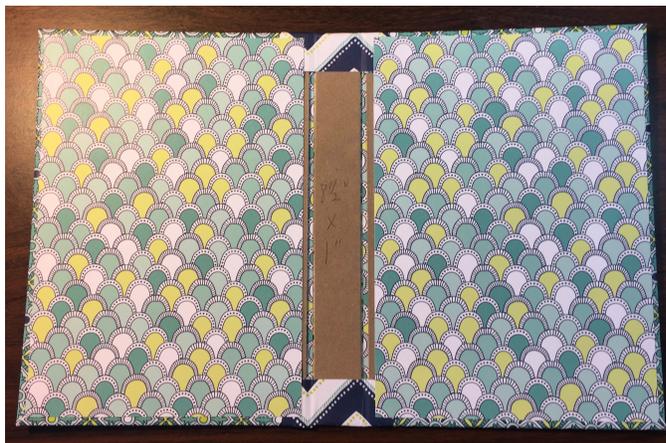

5. Adhere chipboard pieces to cover leaving about  $\frac{1}{8}$ " between the spine and chipboard cover pieces.

6. Apply Scor-Tape to outside edges of chipboard and patterned paper as shown in the photo.

7. Trim corners. Starting in the center of each side, gently work the paper over the edges of the chipboard. Adhere each side and then adhere the top and bottom.

8. Adhere the inside front and back cover pieces.

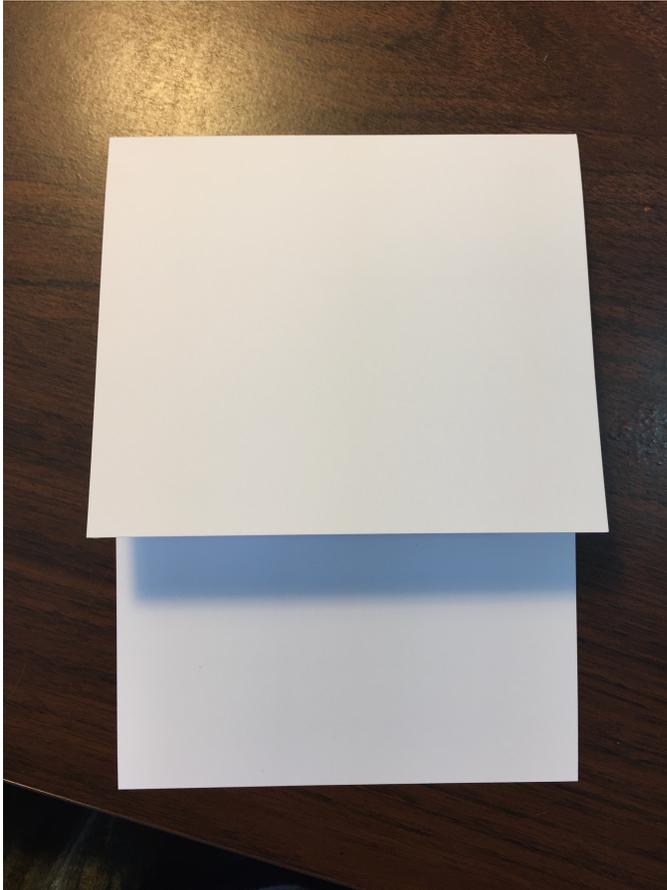

9. Apply Scor-Tape as shown. Adhere the inside spine. Gently work the folds to close the album without breaking the paper.

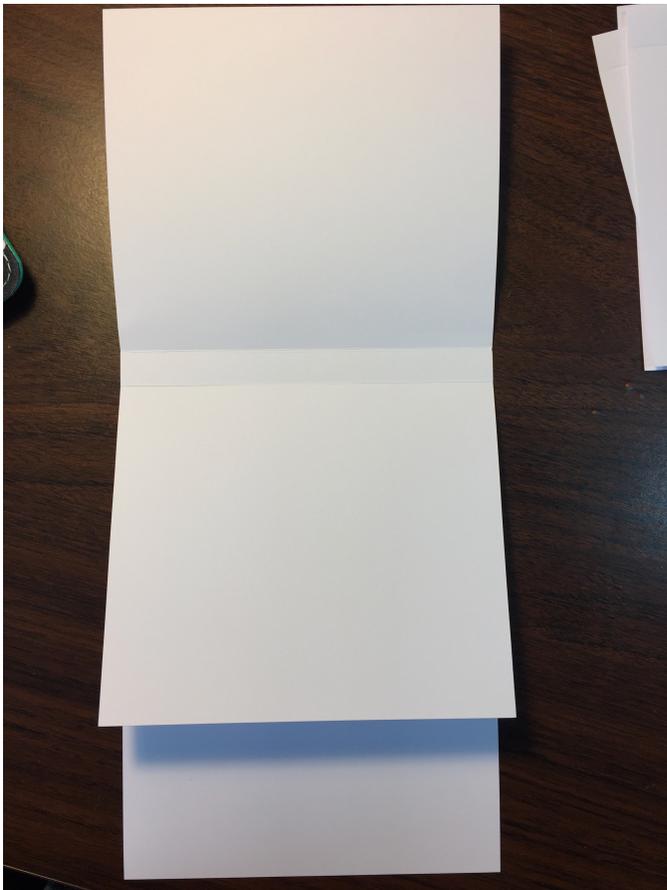

10. Score each of the waterfall base flaps. The easiest way to score is to place each white cardstock piece in your scoreboard with the 5" side lined up along the top of the scoreboard. Score at 4½".

11. After using your bone folder to crease the score lines, apply Scor-Tape.

12. Apply the first flap to the waterfall base lining up the fold with the top of the base.

13. Adhere each consecutive piece aligning the fold to the edge of the section adhered previously.

14. You will repeat this process adhering the remaining six flaps to the other base.

15. Round the corners using a corner rounder, and then adhere a waterfall folio base to each side of your album.

16. After determining the placement of your patterned papers, punch the corners of the two sides that will line up with the rounded base edges with a mini corner punch. Adhere the patterned pieces.

17. Adhere the middle inserts.

18. Attach two labels cut from a label die to the outside spine using both Scor-Tape and liquid glue. One is attached close to the top of the album, and the other is attached close to the bottom of the album.

19. Using a Crop-a-dile II, punch two holes in the album's spine. Punch one hole  $\frac{1}{2}$ " from the top of the spine and one  $1\frac{1}{8}$ " from the top of the spine. Thread ribbon through and adhere bow as desired.

20. Using VersaMark ink, stamp the sentiment on the front banner and emboss with embossing powder. Adhere the banner to the front cover. Decorate the banner with flowers and leaves cut from the Dare 2B Artzy patterned paper. Finish with the adherence of gemstones on the banner and spine labels.
